

Financial Information Checklist for Aging Parents

Organize financial basics so bills, benefits, insurance, and important contacts are easier to find during care planning or an unexpected change.

General information note: This checklist is for organizing information only. It is not legal, financial, tax, benefits, medical, or care-management advice. For decisions about money, taxes, benefits, insurance, legal authority, or account access, speak with the appropriate qualified professional.

Parent and helper information

Parent full name	Date updated
Parent street address	City
State / ZIP	Primary family/helper contact
Primary helper phone/email

Bills and regular payments

List recurring bills, due dates, payment methods, and who to contact. Avoid writing full account numbers unless this is stored securely.

#	Bill / company	Due date	How paid?	Contact / website	Notes
1
2
3
4

Income, benefits, and support programs

This is a place to list what may exist, not to decide eligibility or make benefit decisions.

#	Source / program	Exists?	Contact / login location	Who can discuss it?	Notes
1
2
3
4

Banking, credit, and other financial accounts

Avoid writing full account numbers on copies that could be misplaced. A bank name, account type, and where records are kept may be enough.

#	Institution / account type	Exists?	Where records are kept	Authorized person / POA?	Notes
1
2
3
4

Insurance, taxes, and important financial documents

Check items that have been located. Some items may not apply. Use the notes area for where papers are kept and who to call.

☐ Medicare card / plan info	☐ Medicaid info, if applicable
☐ Long-term care insurance	☐ Life insurance
☐ Homeowners / renters insurance	☐ Auto insurance
☐ Recent tax returns / preparer	☐ Property tax, mortgage, rent, or HOA
☐ Utility account information	☐ Funeral, burial, cemetery, or prepaid arrangement info

Insurance, tax, or document notes

Trusted professionals and contacts

List professionals who may already know the family situation. Confirm authorization before expecting them to share information.

#	Name / organization	Role	Phone / email	Authorized to discuss?	Notes
1
2
3
4

Digital access and paper trail

Avoid listing passwords in an unsecured form. Note where password instructions, account lists, or access plans are kept.

Password manager/access instructions location	Primary email used for bills/benefits
Online banking/bill pay notes	Paper statements/mail location
Safe, lockbox, file cabinet, or binder location	Who should be contacted before changes are made?

Action tracker

Turn uncertainty into smaller next steps. Mark urgent items as Now.

#	Concern / task	Priority	Who to contact	Next step / notes
1
2
3
4

Privacy reminder: Parent Stay Home does not receive, save, store, or see anything you write in this checklist. Keep completed copies in a secure place and share only with trusted or authorized people when appropriate.